EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Julius Fister, III on March 28, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In The Claims

In claim 3, at line 6, please delete "rinsing the capillary with a buffer;"

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant independent claims have been amended so as to exclude the rinsing of the capillary with a cleaning solution intermediate the steps of applying a first voltage and injecting a second sample, or intermediate the application of the first and second voltage differentials, or intermediate the steps of subjecting the first sample to electrophoresis and subjecting the second sample to electrophoresis. The prior art performs such a rinse with a cleaning solution. In Hu et al, Journal of Chromatography A, 717, (1995), pages 33-39, the cleaning solution is a 0.1M NaOH solution rinse between runs (see page 35). In Kendler et al, Journal of Chromatography, 545, (1991), pages 397-402, the cleaning solution is also 0.1 M NaOH (see page 398). As noted in the instant specification, "[a]lthough a variety of cleaning solutions may be employed to rinse a capillary, one of the more popular rinses is NaOH, such as in the concentration of 50 mM to 200 mM" (see page 1, lines 29-31). The instantly claimed invention eliminates the need for a cleaning solution (see figure 2; page 1, line 30; and the paragraph bridging pages 2 and 3).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
